Weckerly, Rodier, and Armiger Will Agree on Personnel of Quint Which Shall Represent This City in Championship Duckpin Series-Tentative List Drawn Up.

By KIRK C. MILLER.

Probably no question concerns the duckpin adherents of the Capital today as much as the one-who will be picked by the committee composed of C. A. Weckerly, H. T. Rodier, and Harry Armiger, to represent Washington in the championship match with an all-star team of Brockton, Mass., the details for which have been agreed upon with the exception of exact dates for the games?

This very question is to be decided upon tonight when the persons mentioned above will meet at the Palace alleys, for final consideration of the ability of the various candidates; but whether or not an amendment is to be made by the body of rollers who have been given this important matter to decide is another proposition entirely. There is much personal feeling in the various sections as to who should be included on this team and each division of the city has its candidate for whom it is legislating for election to the team.

On all sides wagers are being made as to which of the local duckpin sattelltes will be included in the number which is to go to Brockton and which is to roll against the visitors here.

The standard of ability to which the chosen few must measure up is high, indeed, and the whole city is being scoured in an earnest endeavor to pick out the rollers who will acquit them selves best while dinder the severe strain which accompanies competition in such a match. While it is impossible to prophesy the exact members whom the team-picking committee will agree upon, the consensus of opinion gathered from the most conservative authorities seems to indicate that the choice lies among ten bowlers who are tamed below.

due his adversaries by turning loose his speed, of which he possesses plenty. Carson entered Washington and Lee because of his friendship for Captain "Jiggs" Donahue, whose home is in Somerville, Mass., and by an odd coincidence Carson and Donahue are the only men at Washington and Lee who hall from the Bay State. They will make a picturesque battery, for Donahue is about the size of "Rabbit" Maranville, of the Braves, no taller, surely, but possibly a trifle heavier.

While he is a glutton for work, Carson will not be called on to do all the hurling for the Generals. Charley Lile, from Jackson, Tenn., will frequently appear on the rubber, and a young stle, charged with using undue violation of the Braves, no taller, surely, but possibly a trifle heavier.

MONSTER ENTRY FOR THREE-BALL EVENT

Commercial League to Hold Tournament at Palace Alleys Tonight.

Five hundred bowlers are expected to try their hand in the unique tournament which is being staged tonight at the Palace Alleys under the direction of the Commercial Duckpin League. The popular "three-ball" tourney is the event which will be participated in by a throng of the local alley adepts, its peculiarity lying in the fact that three duckpin balls are rolled at the unsuspecting flock of tenpins erected at the end of an ordinary bowling course.

Any one roller may enter as often as he cares to deposit the amount of 2 cents and the ones making the best scores are to share in the attractive cash prize list which has been provided. The event is being staged by the Commercial League for the purpose of financing its annual banquet when the eason closes on March 3L

That some of the men who will shoot Tuesday night will get a perfect scorewhich is 30-is confidently expected, although the record for this city is 28. Getting three strikes by using a duckpin ball with the big pins is a hard proposition, although to casually judge the proposition it looks comparatively easy. In the tourney held last ran by casy. In the tourney held last rait by the National Capital League good scores were made, not alone by the star duck pin and tenpin men, but by the ordinary rollers as well. The element of luce enters into this line of tourney shootins in a manner that is startling.

Bowlers who are scheduled to roll os other alleys tonight have expressed the intention of going to the Palace after their regular league matches, and the tourney will extend until midnight. Play will begin at 6 o'clock. A bowler cas enter as many times as he desires, a fee of 25 cents being charged for every three balls. Thirty is the best score possible to be made, as strikes count only for ten.

A committee from the Commercial League, consisting of all the captains of the league, has charge of the affair and all the captains are requested to get all their team down to the alleys as early as possible. It has been proposed to stage a "one-ball" duckpit game as a side line, and if this is done a gala night at the Palace will be of the cards.
